The submission, consideration and decision on appeals shall not give rise to any action against the appellant.

A person who disagrees with the decision to hear the appeal has the option of resubmitting a written appeal.

Dispute

DEKRA Certification Sp. z o.o. may forward a complaint that has not been resolved internally to the conciliator. Referral to the conciliator may also be made in a situation where the complainants inform DEKRA Certification Sp. z o.o. that they want their complaint to be initially considered by a conciliator rather than DC. The decision to forward the complaint to the conciliator is made each time by the Management Board of the Company.

The resolution of the dispute may result in a settlement, recommendation or settlement decision.

Each Customer is informed that in case of divergence of interpretation of legal actions, the last body of appeal is the competent court for the registered office of DEKRA Certification Sp. z o.o.

Once the resolution has been implemented, the dispute file is closed. Records of the dispute are stored in accordance with the internal procedure of DEKRA Certification Sp. z o.o.
