5 Actionable Tips to Take Control of Your EHS Compliance

Compliance isn't just a box to check—it's the foundation for protecting your people and driving success. But when it feels overwhelming, especially for teams with limited EHS resources, DEKRA is here to help. We break down complex regulations and provide practical steps to simplify the process, no matter your team's size or capabilities. With DEKRA, EHS management becomes simpler, safer, and smarter.

Tip 1

Regulatory Compliance

- ✓ Conduct a full review of 2025 OSHA, EPA, and state regulations
- ✓ Audit existing safety programs and identify gaps
- ✓ Update written policies and operating procedures

Tip 2

Risk Management & Safety Culture

- ✓ Perform a thorough workplace risk assessment (chemical, physical, ergonomic)
- ✓ Remove recurring hazards and implement preventive measures
- ✓ Refresh safety culture and enable engagement of both leadership employees

Tip 3

Employee Training & Competency

- ✓ Verify required EHS competencies for your workforce are current
- ✓ Schedule mandatory safety and compliance training for 2025
- ✓ Explore innovative and efficient training delivery methods, including adaptive e-learning, virtual sessions, and immersive in-person experiences

Tip 4

Incident Reporting and Prevention

- ✓ Review and optimize incident response procedures
- ✓ Analyze past incidents and near-misses to identify potential severity and human factor influences
- ✓ Implement a proactive strategy to reduce workplace injuries

Tip 5

Sustainability and Environmental Goals

- ✓ Ensure compliance with waste disposal and emissions tracking requirements
- ✓ Set and track measurable sustainability goals for 2025
- ✓ Leverage technology to monitor and report progress

For over 100 years, DEKRA has led in safety, helping global businesses navigate evolving regulations and avoid costly risks.

Compliance isn't just a legal requirement—it's key to protecting employees, improving operations, and driving sustainability. DEKRA turns compliance challenges into opportunities.
